

1. What is an example of a biotic factor that can impact the distribution of an organism?
2. How are abiotic factors different to biotic factors?
3. Describe how to carry out a line transect?
4. Describe how to carry out random sampling?
5. Would you use a line transect or random sampling to investigate how the number of daffodils changes with distance from a path? Justify your choice

